

Meet our Winter Vendors . . .

We are very happy with the quality of each of our vendors. Our Farmers' Market is an Ohio Proud member, which means the majority of these products are grown or made right here in Ohio! This list was updated as of 2/9/17. Please check back for more additions as the season continues to build.

Allison's Challah

*Allison Beadle
Lithopolis*

Allison will be baking and bringing her fresh challah bread, which is a special bread made to celebrate the Jewish Sabbath and holidays. However, it is delicious and can be enjoyed by all.

Barnes and Soapel

*Richard Barnes
Reynoldsburg*

As a two-man operation, we manufacture a plethora of soaps and lotions containing essential oils and other natural ingredients that are sure to leave your skin feeling natural, refreshed, and soothed. Our products contain no harmful or unnatural ingredients, assuring that even those with the most sensitive skin will enjoy our inventory. We offer a variety of enticing scents and luscious fragrances to satisfy any customer's olfaction. We also guarantee our products. BarnesandSoapel.com

B'Scotti Homemade Biscotti

*Scott & Tina Banaski
Blacklick*

For those who already know and love biscotti, you will appreciate the quality and variety of B'Scotti! For those who have not indulged, stop by and give us a try; you will not be disappointed. An example of the biscotti varieties you will see at Market this season include: Double Chocolate, Cranberry Crunch, Hazelnut and Triple Lemon. We will be present on the following dates: January 12 & 19 and February 2 & 23.

Ceramics by Angie

*Angie Massie
Canal Winchester*

Dress up your home with hand-painted ceramics. Offering both seasonal and year-round décor. All items are water resistant so they can be used indoors or outdoors. These items are great one of a kind gifts! Customization is available. Ceramicsbyangie.etsy.com

Cynt's Scents Make Sense

*Cynthia Williams
Columbus*

Cynt's Scents aromatic essential oil blends will satisfy any mood. With a wide array of scents from musks, florals, fruity, earthy, soft, fresh, etc., we have the one that will suit you. Not only are they great to wear but feel free to put them in your diffusers or incense burners to freshen your home or provide a calming night's sleep. The small bottles make them great for travel, especially if you are flying. Stop by and smell on January 12, 19 and February 16.

Darby Creek Beef

Kevin Beavers Orient

From field to freezer fresh – that’s this fourth generation cattle farmer’s motto. He’s proud to state that he uses no hormones on his cattle that graze on 40+ acres along scenic Darby Creek. Select from a variety of beef cuts to discover the taste of pure, unadulterated beef. You’ll also enjoy delicious pork products, including chops, bacon, sausage and brats.

Delicious Universe

*Trish Caldwell
Galloway*

New to our market...They will be bringing a variety of handmade packaged snacks. “We treat the production of our lines as a craft and put great care into the final quality and consistency of each and every product.” Choose from sweets or healthy options including coconut creations. See them all listed on their website. Delicious-universe.com

Gold “N” Harvest Farm

*Gary Courtright
Canal Winchester*

Gary has been a bee keeper since 2011 and he currently has 14 hives that he is harvesting his local honey from to bring to market. He will also be bringing: farm fresh eggs and hand-sewn organic cat nip pillows made by his partner, known as “Silly Grandma”.

Great Harvest Bread

Jim Horstman Westerville

Just one taste of Great Harvest’s freshly baked cinnamon bread, pepperoni rolls or whole wheat bread, and you’ll understand why customers eagerly wait in line. This made-from-scratch bakery uses pure, wholesome ingredients with no trans fats or preservatives as the staff hand-kneads each loaf daily. Get to the market early for the best selection! breadco@sbcglobal.net

Hot Wax Candles

*Melanie McClure
Columbus*

These candles are handmade in Columbus, Ohio and use 100% soy wax and essential oils. We specialize in the use of reclaimed glassware and up-cycled containers for our unique creations.

Ingram Acres

*Eliza Ingram
Canal Winchester*

We are a small family business located in Canal Winchester focusing on all things home grown, handcrafted and homemade. The crown jewel is our line of premium granolas we make from scratch each week. In the spring and summer we also offer heirloom jade and garden plants, herb baskets, garlic and handmade gifts. Questions and orders can be directed to IngramAcres@yahoo.com

Linda’s Ideas

*Linda Scott
Reynoldsburg*

She makes tea cup butterfly feeders and wood burnings. She will also be taking special orders. You can visit her at the market on January 26 & February 23.

Novo Terra Farm

*David Herron
Lockbourne*

This is a third generation farm that will be providing us with lots of seasonal produce such as: radishes, peas, green beans, tomatoes, peppers, cucumbers, egg plants, corn, onions and squash. They are also known for their famous sugar cream pies. Their pie recipe comes from a recipe from the 1950's at the Shades Restaurant.

Pretzels with a Twist

Renne' Dismore Pickerington

Pretzels with a Twist by Nay's Creative Ways are gourmet flavored mini-twist pretzels in Spicy, Cinnamon, Zesty Ranch, Fiesta Taco, Peppermint Cocoa and ChipotleQue Barbecue. "We've put a New Twist on a Classic Snack."

www.nayspretzels.com

Rescued Wood Treasures

*Richard Barclay
Columbus*

Since 2012, Rescued Wood Treasures in Columbus has been creating handmade wood art using wood from all over the world. We take wood that could be abandoned or burned and turn it into something beautiful and/or useful. Our owner has many years of experience working with wood and has turned a passion into a business. We create hand turning bowls, bottle stoppers, dishware, and other handy household products.. Each piece is truly one-of-a-kind. By blending different types of wood together we create beautiful colors and patterns for useful products. Check his creations out on January 12.

rescuedwoodtreasures.com

Rhema Designs

*Tracey Mitchell
Reynoldsburg*

Tracey debuted her jewelry during our summer market, but she has been creating and designing new unique pieces. Get one-of-a-kind necklaces, bracelets, and earrings.

Rusty Star Primitives

*Ray and Karen Hart
Lexington*

We have been a family operated business for more than 25 years, which included our children when they were younger. We started in primitive wood crafts and gifts and moved into gardening with produce in season, over 37 types of fresh herbs and finally into fudge, praline candy, flavored popcorn and brittle. We find that, depending on the season, people are always interested in something we have for sale. Our produce is grown without pesticides or sprays and our candies and popcorn are all homemade with almost all natural ingredients. You may visit our Facebook site and make custom orders at

countryangel08@gmail.com

Scout Widows

*Rachel Bailey
Reynoldsburg*

Being the Mom of a busy family she started making felt birthday banners for her family to have fun birthday décor. Then Ariel joined and they started the Scout Widows business after nights spent crafting as their husbands were at Boy Scout camp outs and activities. They specialize in multi-colored "Happy Birthday" felt banners that are hand crafted and individually made. These are the perfect banners to have on hand to celebrate all of the loved ones in your life. They also take special orders. We will be at the Market on January 26 and February 16.

Stand by Faith

*Dorrece Tanawat
Pataskala*

Coming back for their third year they will bring home baked goodies like pies, breads, dumplings, fudge and buckeyes. All the proceeds they earn will go towards charity.

Stichin' Away

*Alayne Quick
Reynoldsburg*

She will be selling quilted bowl cozies and knitted dishcloths. She also has a large selection of handmade American Girl clothes and sleeping bags. Browse her products on January 26 or February 16.

Tiny Baker

*Brittany Schroeder
Columbus*

A home baker for almost three years, Brittany brings you a variety of tasty treats. From classic cookies to decked out cake pops or healthier alternatives such as snack bars, your sweet tooth is sure to be satisfied. Homemade just tastes better! tiny.baker16@gmail.com