

Local Development Partners

In pursuit of economic development the city of Reynoldsburg works with many development partners to provide assistance for a successful project. These include the State of Ohio, County Development Departments, Chambers of Commerce, and other non-profit economic development agencies. Below are brief descriptions and links to those development partners.

Ohio Department of Development: The Ohio Department of Development works to attract, create, grow, and retain businesses through competitive incentives and targeted investments throughout the State.

<http://www.odod.state.oh.us>

Franklin County Department of Economic Development: FCED assists with starting or locating a business within Franklin County, including guidance to accessing state, federal, and local incentives.

http://www.co.franklin.oh.us/commissioners/edp/economic_development.cfm

Licking County Planning Commission: LCPC assists with all economic development programs available in Licking County (eastern most portion of Reynoldsburg). http://www.lcounty.com/Planning/econ_dev/default.aspx

Fairfield County Economic Development: Fairfield County ED can assist in locating within the Taylor Square area. They also offer a variety of programs include a revolving loan program available to Reynoldsburg businesses. <http://www.co.fairfield.oh.us/dev/>

Reynoldsburg Area Chamber of Commerce: The Reynoldsburg Chamber is the voice of local business and they provide a number of great services to the business community. They also enjoy an open and active relationship with the policy makers in Reynoldsburg. <http://www.reynoldsburgchamber.com>

Columbus Chamber: The Columbus Chamber leads economic development and growth in the Columbus Region. They are a valuable resource to connect you to the information, people, and resources that your business needs. <http://www.columbus.org>

Mid-Ohio Development Exchange (MODE): MODE is organization made up of local economic development professionals, that promotes economic development in the Mid-Ohio area. <http://www.mid-ohio.org>