

Biography

Meredith Lawson-Rowe

Ward 4

Meredith Lawson-Rowe is a professional Executive Assistant with experience providing outstanding administrative support to top executives and senior level administrators. Although new to the political arena, she is not new to serving behind the scenes. Her 20+ years of executive administrative assistance has helped other political campaigns, community groups and religious organizations behind the scenes. Her communications skills and listening skills have pushed her to move outside of her comfort zone to be the voice of the voiceless.

On Tuesday November 5, 2019, Reynoldsburg voters elected the first black women to serve on Reynoldsburg council. She hopes to accomplish addressing her neighbors' concerns and challenges and bringing to the table of City Council discussions. She will bring that fresh approach. She will be an advocate for the need for economic and infrastructure development on her side of town. She will bring clear representation of the entire ward, rather than just a few.

Locally Lawson-Rowe has served in various volunteer roles with Reynoldsburg schools during her 15 year tenure as a Reynoldsburg resident. She has served the Central Ohio Art Academy, Reynoldsburg Jr. Raiders and Reynoldsburg Football Parent Association. Most notably, she independently organized and executed a Reynoldsburg Sports Donation Drive for kids in foster care.

Lawson-Rowe has been married to Rondal Rowe, Jr for 27 years. They are the proud parents of three children and two grandchildren. Their adult son, affectionately known as Tre (married to Maisha), is a graduate of Reynoldsburg High School. Their daughter, Nandi, is a freshman at the Cleveland Institute of Art and their youngest son, Roland, is a senior at Saint Charles Preparatory School. She is also a proud member of the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.
