

Biography

Angie Jenkins

President of Council

Angie is married to Will and they have three sons, Orlando, Angelo, and Evan. In addition to their three sons, they have one grandson, Zion. Angie and her family are from Cincinnati, Ohio and in the year 2000, they moved to Taylor Woods located in Reynoldsburg. They decided to move to Reynoldsburg, because of the schools, and it was a great place to live and raise a family. Angie's three sons have all graduated from Reynoldsburg City Schools. Angie has two dogs a Boxer Dutchess, and a Yorkie Reese.

Angie retired from the State Ohio Attorney General Office in December, 2018. With having fifteen years of State of Ohio government experience, she decided to run for President of Reynoldsburg City Council, and won the election, November 2019. She has worked for the State of Ohio Medical Board, Board of Nursing Home Administrators, and The Department of Health. Angie has the experience of working in state government that she brings to the local level with the Reynoldsburg City Council. She has worked with State Representatives, Legislators, and with the Governor's office, while working with the State of Ohio. Angie has also been a Board of Elections Poll Worker for Licking County. She has a Bachelor of Arts and Science Degree from Xavier University, completed Project Management Professional (PMP), and Ohio Real Estate courses from Hondros College.

As President of Reynoldsburg City Council, Angie will work to improve Reynoldsburg's infrastructure, economic development and address key safety concerns. Angie plans to have open communication and conversations with our residence and with our neighboring municipalities. Angie hopes that families choose Reynoldsburg, just as she and her family did, because it is a great place to live and raise a family.
